

From: james arnstein
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/7/02 3:40pm
Subject: 9 States vs Microsoft AntiTrust Case

Dear Sir,

I think the demands that the 9 states are attempting to place on Microsoft as punishment for their "anti trust" practices are ludicrous. The hidden corporate motives of various Microsoft competitors, all trying to disrupt and destroy Microsoft's market positions, are the real culprits. Let the consumer dictate what they want in the market place and not the attorney generals from the 9 states trying to break up the business practices of Microsoft.

Thank you,

James Arnstein